DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 7/22/04 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 31, 32, 42 and 43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Brenneman et al. (6,053,935). Brenneman et al. disclose a bone anchor and an insertion device, as claimed (see figures 13-22).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 33-41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brenneman et al. '935 in view of Anspach, III et al. '541. Brenneman et al. disclose a bone anchor insertion and a bone anchor as claimed except for a presence of two cutting edges come together to form a pointed tip at a narrow end of the bone anchor. Anspach, III et al. disclose cutting edges come together to form a pointed tip for spearing into bone more easily. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to employ cutting edges as disclosed by Anspach, III et al. in order to provide a better spearing tip for the bone anchor disclose in Brenneman et al reference.
